Through my signature below, I understand that the failure to meet any financial obligations to the Association may jeopardize my Member in Good Standing status. I also understand that this membership shall be effective as of the date of the signing of this application, subject only to subsequent approval of the Board of Directors. It is further understood and agreed that the Association has the right to investigate all applicants, including conducting a personal interview.

As the applicant, I hereby authorize the Metropolitan Builders Association (MBA) to conduct such investigations of the applicant's activities, make certain inquiries and obtain credit reports as may be necessary for its determination of the applicant's financial and technical ability to meet its obligations to subcontractors and suppliers. I hereby direct all credit reporting agencies and/or financial institutions to make available to the MBA and representatives any information in the possession of such agencies.

By signing this data sheet, I am hereby giving the MBA and its subsidiaries and affiliates, including WBA and NAHB permission to transmit communication to my company and its staff using any company e-mail, telephone numbers, postal mailings or facsimile numbers. The MBA also had my permission to put contact information on the MBA website and in the membership directory.
